

NAPLIC Day Conference

VENUE, Birmingham

28th April 2018

Developmental Language Disorder: Making change happen

8.30 - 9.15	Coffee, Registration and Exhibition
9.15 - 9.30	Stephen Parsons , NAPLIC Chair What's happening for DLD?
9.30 - 10.20	Jean Gross , CBE, Chair of the Bercow 10 years on review panel What does provision for children and young people with speech, language and communication needs look like across the UK?
10.20 – 11.00	Mandy Grist and Mary Hartshorne , ICAN Advisors / Bercow 10 years on team Taking action for children and young people with SLCN, including those with DLD
11.00 -- 11.30	Tea/Coffee and Exhibition
11.30 – 12.20	Megan Dixon , Director of Literacy and Aspirer Research School, Aspire Educational Trust How schools can make use of the evidence base
	Thomas Martell , Programme Manager, Education Endowment Foundation Evidence-base for improving communication, language and literacy in the EY
12.20 – 12.45	AGM
12.45 – 1.35	Lunch and Exhibition
1.35	Emma Jordan , NAPLIC Vice-Chair
1.40	Developmental Language Disorder: It doesn't stop at school Young people and parents speaking specifically about their experiences
	Maxine Burns , Speech and Language Adviser, ICAN Preparing young people with DLD for the world of work
2.40 – 3.10	Tea/Coffee and exhibition
3.10 – 4.10	Making change happen for DLD in services and schools Examples of good practice from schools and services across the UK
4.10 – 4.30	Professor Courtenay Norbury , NAPLIC President Discussant and closing remarks
4.30	Conference ends